INT. OFFICE - DAY

Bonnie's posture is now exemplary of the perfect student, as she is sitting across from a uniformed WOMAN with her hair pulled back in a smooth bun.

WOMAN

We've taken a look at all the student records at the academy, and yours really stood out to us, Bonnie. You've proven to be an outstanding student. You must come from an excellent household.

Bonnie looks out the barred window, suddenly distracted by muffled arguing. She sees a SECURITY GUARD forcing a MAN off the premises. She is intrigued by the drama.

WOMAN

We hope you'll consider a career in the Navy, but what you've done to your hair is simply unacceptable. Where is this behavior coming from?

She snaps back, surprised by the suggestion. Screw the hair, but the Navy?
